Dear Parents,

"Spring Fever" is in full bloom in our classroom. Please continue to talk with your child about getting the most out of their education, even in these last few weeks of school. Lessons and learning will continue right up to the last days of school. We do have some end of the year fun activities to planned, but students that have late work or have consistently shown they cannot conduct themselves appropriately will not be invited to participate.

Have a great week!
Mrs. Strong
